INTERVIEWS

CHET THOMAS

- on "filming for Battalion"

"Filming the video, we got to travel quite a bit. We went to Barcelona twice in a four month period, which is insane. Barcelona is one of my favorite places, and I'm sure anyone who has been there can attest to the fact that it's a skateboarder's paradise - like a Disneyland for skateboarders. You wake up in the morning, go outside your flat, skate down the street and hit spots all through the day... just skating and jumping onto the train... spot to spot. We also went to Canada a couple times, had a couple Arizona trips... so we traveled quite a bit. It definitely wasn't just filmed here in Orange County!"

WINDSOR JAMES

- on "team mates"

"We go out to spots - and its sick - seeing people destroy stu

- on "filming for Battalion"

"It's been rough... but it's been fun also at the same time. It's been fun filmin' for the video, ya know!"

SVEN KILCHENMANN

- on "rider History"

"I started skating cuz of my sister. She got a board from her uncle, and the first time she took a board, she pushed and caught a rock and fell on her nose - and her nose was bleeding. And then I took the board and pushed around... and I was like "That's easy!" and after that my sister got so mad cuz she fell so hard!"

- on "traveling"

"I love it, it's great to see the world... I'm wondering what's out there, so I go!"

GUY KAMPFEN

- on "history"

"Zurich, Switzerland. Ya, that's where I grew up, and where all my friends are from. My family is there, and I always like to go back there after a couple weeks. It's my home basically..."

- on "traveling"

"...Ya I go (to Barcelona) at least twice a year for a week or two. This year I went there for almost six weeks..."

CHRIS DOBSTAFF

- on "traveling"

"It's a bunch of everything (in Barcelona). . . I like it for that reason. Everyone from around the world goes to Barcelona to check it out, if not live there. And all the artsy kind of things they have there, like people posing as statues (on the street) just to get a couple dollars out of the day - that was pretty cool - and how the cops don't say nothing (about skating)."

MIKE HASTIE

- on "team mates"

"The (Ladner) skatepark opened, and that's where I met everybody - just from this park. Paul would come by every once in a while. Paul was the older (skater) and just killin' it. . . and that was all I heard - "Paul did this," or "Paul did that!" Then eventually (I got to be there) when Paul did this, or when Moses (Itkonen) did that. It was awesome growing up with those guys for sure. It pushed me a lot!!!"

PAUL MACHNAU

- on "team mates"

"... ya, Hastie's a great kid. I remember one of the first times I met him was at Ladner park, which is Hastie's park, you know. So when I first met him he had this attitude, like a small kid attitude. . . He was so young, it was impressive to see someone that young skating that good and having an attitude! So when I saw Hastie go for this 11 stair, Canadian 11 stair, handrail nollie crooks. . . he didn't land it - he landed on his board. I think he got hurt a little bit, but it was real impressive to see him hop on it and go for it. And nowadays he's taking it to a whole new level."

GAILEA MOMOLU

- on "rider History"

"I've been skating for about 8 years, (as of) this Summer. I've spent most of my life in Ottawa, Ontario. It's a good town - the skateboarding scene is pretty good there. . ."

- on "approaching a spot"

"... That's one of the happiest moments - not even in skateboarding, but in my life - when I'm trying something really hard and I do get it. And I can look at a photo, look at a magazine, or look back at footage and (say) "Damn! That took me so long!" (and be) so psyched to actually see that trick perform."

RYAN KENREICH

- on "the team"

"Skating for darkstar hasn't been like any other company I've ridden for. You know, it used to feel kinda like work when we'd go on tour. . . you don't really know anyone, or maybe you know one person, and there's always someone you don't get along with. . . but when I go on tour with darkstar, it's like a group of friends taking a trip. It's not really even like a tour."

Coming in October

Darkstar Armor Ply decks are made with a super strong carbon composite center, bonded directly between Canadian Maple veneers. Armor Ply drastically increases stiffness, shape "memory", pop, and overall deck longevity, for high impact skateboarding demands. Designed inhouse and tested by the Darkstar team, Darkstar Armor Ply decks are by far the best performing and longest lasting decks available today.
